

U. S. Bancorp Investments, Inc. (USBI) may receive remuneration for directing orders in equity securities to particular broker/dealers or market centers for execution. Such remuneration is considered compensation to the firm, and the source and amount of any compensation received by the firm in connection with your transaction will be disclosed upon request.